LADY CURZON'S WILL.

Value of the Estate $59,875—Most of It Left to Her Husband.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The will of Lady Curzon of Kedleston, who died on July 18, was filed for probate to-day. It is dated Dec. 19, 1898, and was made on board the steamship Arabia. The value of the estate is placed at $59,875.

The testatrix gives numerous jewels to her husband, in trust for their eldest son, to go to him as heirlooms with the title, but should she leave no son they will then go to their daughters. The diamond jewels given to her by Lord Scarsdale, father of Lord Curzon of Kedleston, she leaves to her husband for life, and then to the owner of the Kedleston title. A painting by Millet and a number of books go to her father, and her furs go to her mother. The residue is left to her husband.

Lady Curzon left three daughters, Mary Irene, born in 1898; Cynthia Blanche, born in 1898, and Alexandra Naldera, born in 1904.
